Note: Seams position on a seat and backrest varies depending on the upholstery type. This contributes to the functional performance and aesthetic appearance of a final product.

The "Flock" furniture collection draws on the idea that home is a place of comfort, sanctuary, and gathering and should be filled with personalized, character-rich, and eye-catching statement objects.

Soft, voluptuous, sensual forms, natural materials, and pleasant-to-the-touch surfaces reflect a desire for warmth and cocooning.

The name "Flock" means "to move or come together" and refers to the collection's role as a peaceful oasis within the home.

Flock lounge chairs and ottomans can be customized in a wide range of textile options with wooden legs in natural hues or painted in any RAL color.
